imagine osamu getting frustrated with himself because he can't figure how to cook something, like he's missing one or more ingredients and he doesn't know what they are so he goes to atsumu who is laying on his bed + scrolling through instagram peacefully until osamu busts through the door, atsumu jumps and asks what's wrong and all osamu could say is

"take yer pants off" and atsumu already knows that osamu is frustrated and needs to relieve himself.
