every night after practice the twins would leave after everyone else, it was pretty common to see them "practicing" late.

usually when everyone leaves, they're still setting and spiking, until 7:30 then they would start to pack up and go home.

once they left, they were holding hands in osamu's jacket pocket without saying a word. this is totally normal for them however atsumu had other plans. he stopped in his tracks and osamu said "tsumu? what's wrong?" atsumu didn't say anything he just kissed osamu and pointed at the alley way that was in between and convenient store and another building and smirked.

osamu was confused until he realized.

"ya wanna do it there?" atsumu nodded and told him that he thought it would be fun trying to be sneaky osamu thought about it for a minute then agreed, it was already dark out anyway so who would even come by there? right?

some time went by and atsumu was getting railed up against a cold brick wall. it was kind of uncomfortable to fuck standing up but hot nonetheless

that's when atsumu noticed a surveillance camera that belonged to the local konbini. he smirked and when osamu saw what he was looking at, he smirked too

"ya like being watched? ya like it when people watch you get fucked down in the middle of an alley way?" atsumu couldn't say anything, all he could do was hum in response "yer such a dirty whore ya know that?"

atsumu was about to cum from all the degrading he was getting, osamu felt it too "just hold out a little for me"

atsumu couldn't take it anymore, "sa-samu, m-m' gonna-" osamu went harder and said

"cum for me"
