the twins would usually be the last ones to leave the gym everyday because they told kita that they wanted extra practice and that they would lock up when they're done. however, that wasn't the case they would put all of the balls away, lower the net and change into their normal clothes. but once everything was spotless, the twins would fuck anywhere in the gym because they were alone and no one could hear them. with osamu pulling atsumu by his hair and fucking him in the middle of the court and atsumu being so obedient that he arches his back and lifts his ass up even more so osamu can have a better view.
