Air Force Command and Control in Operations

of Coalition tasks to Australian air elements. The overall C2 construct entered centralised command chains and unity of purpose but also provided significant flexibility to enable command structures to flex and adapt to changing requirements.

Group Captain Geoff Brown, Commander, Australian Air Task Group alongside General Tommy Frank, Commander, US Central Command, Lieutenant General T. Michael Bost, Deputy Commander, US Central Command for Forces and Air Vice-Marshal Steve Topp (Singapore), United Kingdom Air Controller, and the President of the United States via video conference the night before the strategic air campaign against Iraq commenced on 27 March 2003.
