atsumu (13) attended middle school in hyogo where his older brother osamu (24) worked. osamu taught English and Math. and atsumu was in both of his classes.

once atsumu and the rest of the class walked in , atsumu sat in the back of the class where no one could really see him.

once class started, osamu walked in with the two top buttons open and glasses on his head "alright class, please open your books to chapter eight." the class did exactly that.

didn't though, all he had out was his phone. he just stared at his brother and his collar bone. osamu noticed and smirked.

arsumu blushed at the sudden attention he got and bit his lip, leaning back in his chair, spreading his legs just a bit so he can rub his pre-pubescent cock over his pants. osamu then said "well atsumu, since you don't want to open up your book to chapter eight, you can stay after school to work on the assignment."

atsumu rolled his eyes and said "yeah sure" but the only thing he was going to do was suck his brothers cock under his desk. making it hard for isamu to talk to other teachers when they walk by his classroom , then when they leave, osamu is gonna bend him over and fuck him on top of his desk leaving cum stains all over the hard wood.
